

Funky Hannah's Bead Makin' Camp 2014

Five days and with different themes each day – these classes will not only inspire but help develop great skills in jewelry making! Perfect for those age 9-13!

Two sessions:

July 7th-11th & August 4th-8th

Each session meets Monday through Friday 9am – Noon at Funky Hannah's 324 Main Street, downtown in Racine. Weekly session fee $125, includes all supplies and a healthy snack.

Jewelry Rock Star! Monday.

Learn all the rock star tricks for designing and creating your own jewelry! You'll make earrings and a necklace or bracelet in this fun filled workshop designed to give you what you need to be a jewelry making rock star!

Tiles, Resin & Crystal Clay! Tuesday

Work with three cool techniques to create original focal pieces for your jewelry. It's like scrapbooking and mosaic but in a small scale for wearable art. Bring your favorite photos or images if you'd like to incorporate them.

Wrap & Rivet! Wednesday

Make the latest, trendiest bracelets! Colorful beads and leather make a real statement in both of these designs. Tons of color & style options give students lots of creative expression!

Stamp It Out! Thursday

Stamp-stamp-stamp! Students will create their own stamped tags to add to a necklace or bracelet. Words of inspiration or names... they make great for gifts for parents or grandparents too!

Embrace-Let Yourself! Friday

Embrace your creativity with your own awesome designs! You'll make an anklet and memory wire bracelet and learn some fun design tricks! Your friends will all want you to make them one!

Camp is designed as a week long adventure. In the event that camp does not fill with weekly registrants, single day reservations will be accepted two weeks prior to camp. Daily class fee $30, includes all supplies, as well as a healthy snack.
